JOB BRIEF:

We are looking for an enthusiastic woman who wants the opportunity to minister to girls in our Quinceaneras Prep Program. This opportunity is for those looking to minister/help form the next generation of young ladies.

The Quinceañera is the celebration of a girl's fifteenth birthday, marking her passage from childhood to womanhood. The Quinceañera began as a tradition in the Americas, particularly in Mexico, Central and South America. It is also frequently celebrated by Hispanic Catholics in the dioceses of the United States of America. Today, a Quinceañera is a celebration of thanksgiving for a young girl's life and her passage into womanhood. Her parents, relatives, and friends ask God to pour his blessings and protection upon her as she matures into a young woman. The celebration is not a sacrament. The Quinceañera Mass is an act of thanksgiving for Life and Faith, crowned by God's blessing. It is an opportunity for the young girl to consolidate her commitment to her faith. You will work with each girl one on one to guide them through this preparation on what it means to be a woman of God and how to follow His plan.

You, as the mentor, will review each worksheet the girl submits and upload a personal answer key back to her. The goal is to get the girl to think and discuss each topic first, in order to find her own answers. This heuristic process allows her to stay engaged in the subject being discussed and her own the knowledge that is being passed on. The mentor will then complete the girl's answers with the teachings of the Church in the customized answer key. We want these young girls to learn the importance of chastity and we want to equip them to face the challenges of our society.
